Noodles & Company Launches Zucchini Noodles Nationwide

Spiralized zucchini noodles offer guests more variety with new flavorful low-carb, low-calorie menu options

BROOMFIELD, Colo., May 2, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Noodles & Company (NASDAQ: NDLS), serving classic noodle and pasta dishes inspired by flavors from around the world, today announced the nationwide launch of zucchini noodles. Made from fresh zucchinis spiralized in-house daily, the delicious low-calorie and low-carb zoodles will debut in two worldly dishes - the all-new Zucchini Romesco and the fan-favorite Zucchini Thai Green Curry with Shrimp. Noodles is the first national fast-casual chain to offer zoodles coast-to-coast.

The two new featured zoodle dishes include:

- 1 Zucchini Romesco: This new dish has a sweet and tangy chunky roasted red pepper sauce - reminiscent of a Spanish pesto - made with almonds, sundried tomatoes and garden vegetables.
- 1 Zucchini Thai Green Curry with Shrimp: A new take on a Noodles staple, this dish pairs a sweet coconut green curry sauce with pineapple, broccoli, red onion, snap peas, lime, black sesame seeds and cilantro.

"We're excited to add zoodles to our restaurants nationwide. Expanding our noodle offerings from classic pastas like cavatappi, elbow and spaghetti to more adventurous noodles like udon, rice and ramen, zucchini is a natural step in providing our guests with more creative options. In addition to zucchini tasting delicious and being a great substitute in every dish we serve, zucchini noodles also meet many of today's dietary needs, such as low-carb and gluten-free," said Chas Hermann, chief brand officer at Noodles & Company. "Our new zucchini noodles are sure to please with bold flavor and fresh, quality ingredients."

Small zoodle bowls start at $5.75, with regular bowls starting at $7.25. Additionally, zoodles can be substituted for classic noodles in any dish for $0.75. To encourage guests to give zucchini noodles a try, Noodles is offering a taste guarantee. Any guest who orders a bowl of zucchini noodles and doesn't feel the zoodle love can get a replacement traditional noodle dish at no additional cost.

Zucchini noodles are a great choice for noodle lovers looking for a lighter option. A regular portion of zucchini noodles has 90 percent fewer calories and carbs than a regular portion of elbow noodles, and all the flavor and taste guests have come to expect from Noodles. Plus, zoodles are packed with vitamin C and potassium and are gluten-free, vegan and vegetarian.

"Crisp and fresh zoodles are a perfect guilt-free swap for traditional noodles in any of our dishes," said Nick Graff, executive chef at Noodles and Company. "All of our flavor-packed sauces pair unbelievably well with the new zucchini noodles. Getting your veggies has never been so easy or delicious."

Zoodles are available at all 476 Noodles restaurants nationwide. Guests can find their local Noodles & Company restaurant by visiting noodles.com.
